Saturday May 19, 2018, 10 AM – 4:30 PM

Cost: $60.00 plus Materials fee $25.00 payable at workshop

Skill Level: Open to All Levels

Lunch: We will have a short lunch break. You can bring your lunch or order carryout.

This workshop is designed to help you make abstract art you feel happy about. You will use inks, acrylics, and various mark making tools. And best of all, you will have fun and learn lots. Creating abstracts can be daunting but not in this workshop. Susan will guide you through a series of steps in her stress-free process. You will create a textured underpainting and use layering as you paint with different media. Toward the end of the day, Susan will show you how to self-evaluate your painting. She will demonstrate and help you individually to achieve an expressive work of art that you will love. This is the kind of workshop you can take many times. You will produce different results each time you take it.

The workshop is for all levels of experience from none to expert. There is a small fee, $25, for all of the art supplies needed in the workshop. Please pay the instructor at the beginning of the workshop. Additionally, we ask that you bring some common household items. You will receive a list of these items when you register.

Susan Lackey has been painting and teaching painting for many years. She paints in acrylic and mixed media. The painting shown on the left is an example of her mixed media work. She has won numerous awards in local shows. Her work has been accepted in state and national level juried shows. She is a signature member of the Watercolor Society of North Carolina.

Advance registration and payment are required. Register online at www.cabarrusartguild.org or call 704-795-1901 or stop by the gallery to register.
