

Kristy Keistler

Kristy is an award winning artist in several different mediums.

She started out with a love of fantasy and drawing at a very young age but did not get serious about her art until recently.

She excels in cake sculpting, making fairies with polymer clay, quilting, paper sculpting, alcohol ink and paper quilling.

She teaches classes in many of these at the Cabarrus Art Guild where she has been a member for several years.

