Reda Icenhour

Hi, my name is Reda Icenhour,
I am a photographer. I started painting about 10 years ago, and then started doing some photography which I found that I loved to do much more and now that is all that I do. I have some of my work hanging at Falling Rivers Gallery in Albemarle NC where I have won a few contests and sell some of my photos. I am retired and work some at the gallery. You can see some of my work on my Facebook page, "Reda Icenhour Photography." Reda Icenhour Photography Facebook Link
